INTRODUCTION

1. This is the institutional report of His Majesty the King in right of Ontario (“Ontario”) to the Public Inquiry into the 2022 Public Order Emergency declared by the Government of Canada and in effect from February 14 to 23, 2022 (the “POEC”).¹
2. Ontario is not a party with standing before the POEC.² It submits this report and associated documentary disclosure further to a request from Commission Counsel and the statutory authority of a summons for documents and written information issued under the Inquiries Act.
3. Ontario’s institutional report and documentary disclosure was prepared based on information and documents gathered from across government, and specifically from the provincial ministries most directly involved in the events surrounding the blockades and protests in Ontario in February 2022: the Ministry of the Solicitor General (“SOLGEN”), Ministry of the Attorney General (“MAG”), Ministry of Transportation (“MTO”), Ministry of Economic Development, Job Creation and Trade (“MEDJCT”), Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing (“MMAH”) and the Premier’s and Cabinet Offices which include the Ministry of Intergovernmental Affairs.

OVERVIEW OF KEY EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES BY ONTARIO
